Exciting Incidents Mark "Dry" Raid

Many Arrests By Prohibition Officers. Sheriff Boyes Refused to Jail Men Without Warrant. Violator Slugged

Exciting incidents have marked the presence of fourteen prohibition enforcement officers in Sonoma Valley the past week. Following up investigators tips, the dry squad jumped into the Glen Ellen district last Saturday, making a raid on the Ambrose Noe place in the hills back of the Swain ranch. Ostensibly a goat ranch the "goat's milk" which was very popular, proved to be "hooch," and the officers are said to have seized three stills, mash and a quantity of "white mule." A well beaten path and broken down gates between the Noe place and Glen Ellen had created suspicion and aroused the displeasure of neighbors, so it is said, with the result that Noe was "turned in."

The enforcement officers next visited Julius Pancrazi's, where they seized a bottle of rock and rye which Pancrazi had treasured since before prohibition became the law of the land. The bottle was found in Pancrazi's room, no liquor being found in the former bar room.

The officers next descended upon W. L. Gray and E. Barsi of Glen Ellen and with the instinct of bloodhounds tracked down a cache of wine in a hen house on the premises.

In the vicinity of Boyes Springs several more arrests were made, among them Joe White, J. Dugan, M. Scanlon and William Teeling. J. J. Payne, owner of the property where Teeling held forth, was also arrested but later freed when he proved he had given notice to the tenant to vacate. Teeling while attempting to break a bottle found in his possession, was hit over the head with a black jack by one of the booze raiders and suffered a deep gash in his scalp.

The dry squad next sought to get Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan to lodge Teeling in jail. When asked for the warrant for his arrest, they could not produce one and were told that Sheriff Boyes will not throw any man in jail without a warrant. Ryan advised the prohibition agents to take their prisoner to Santa Rosa, go before a commissioner, get the necessary warrant and then they would be accommodated with jail room. This they refused to do and departed for Petaluma with Teeling where they succeeded in getting temporary jail accommodations from Marshal Flohr. The Petaluma officers, noticing Teeling's bleeding head, insisted that he be given medical attention, whereupon he was taken to Dr. Rogers of that city, who put ten stiches in his scalp. Teeling was jailed but later released on bail.

Wednesday the prohibition squad returned to Sonoma, arresting two hotel keepers in Sonoma—L. Marioni of the Swiss Hotel, and Mrs. Decanini who has been conducting the Fior de Italia since the death of her husband, and several resort proprietors of El Verano and the Springs. The officers held down the telephone to prevent the arrested parties from communicating with others in the danger zone and are said to have served warrants at Main's, Rosenthal's dance hall, Rossi's, Medrick's, Casella's, Boitana's, Fetters, Ganos', and the Shamrock Resort.

The officers claim to have twenty-five warrants as a result of tips turned in by Daisy Simpkins and other employees of Rutter's office who have been gathering evidence in this vicinity for some time past.

There used to be bears in this place. Only that was a long time ago. And in that long ago, when the valley was even more like the Garden of Eden Phil Rossi came—and, like the sensible man he was, he stayed.

Those were the days of first come, first served, and Mr. Rossi picked an appropriate spot for a settler.

In this newer generation a Rossi still lives on that location and has followed in the ancestral footsteps of improvement.

Al Rossi's place is substantial both in exterior and interior, and has the advantage of location. The meals served are the best, entertainment the cleverest that can be obtained and the prices reasonable.

Mr. Rossi himself is a young man of the progressive type that is always trying to better things and besides being a good host, with many friends, is a strong Sonoma Valley booster. Anyone wishing support for community improvement will always find Mr. Rossi ready to offer his services and anyone wishing to enjoy a good vacation will also profit by seeing Mr. Rossi.

Speaking of a greater Sonoma Valley, he says:

"Orators can spout for hours about the natural wonders of this valley and never tell a lie. But no amount of publicity or advertising is going to materially help where there is no accessability. Sonoma is getting that with the new roads and ferry service and it is up to the residents to 'tell the world—we have it.'"

Convention Was A Grand Success

Local Lodges Won High Commendation for Entertainment of Delegates. Tribute to Late Gen. Vallejo. Officers Elected

Sunday morning, July 30, the delegates and Grand officers of the United Order of Redmen arrived in Sonoma to hold their 57th annual convention. Many gayly decorated cars, some of them from as far south as Los Angeles, and containing big delegations of visitors were parked along the streets waiting their place in the parade which was one of the features of the opening program. Sonoma never looked more festive. The streets, which had been elaborately decorated by the committee with evergreen festoons, American flags and the convention colors, were all aflutter with carnival-like gayety and the business houses draped with bunting, added to the town's holiday aspect.

Shortly after one o'clock, the parade formed in line, and led by an Indian Chieftan clad in white, who was followed by other Indians of the tribe, the procession started making the rounds of the Plaza and principal streets, being loudly cheered along the line of march. The local Lodges had a handsome float whose characters were all in Indian costume and added the colorful characteristic touch to the parade. Grand officers, delegates, the orchestra, local members of the Redmen and Daughters of Pocahontas and out-of-town visitors made up the rest of the procession, many autos and trucks being beautifully decorated.

The parade terminated at Oak Grove park where the big picnic was held. The park was thronged through out the afternoon and there was much sociability, introduction of friends, reunion of visiting delegates, feasting and dancing. Music for dancing in the spacious pavillion was provided by Madame Maerilla and her musicians and proved exceedingly popular.

In the evening, there was a reception and entertainment to the delegates and grand officers at Union Hall which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Frank Muller was the popular master of ceremonies. Miss Rosemary Rehaag, a tiny pianist, played delightfully, and for an encore amused all with her rendition of "Hi Li, Hi Lo." Brother William Steinkamp contributed a witty speech, which won loud applause. Carl Dresel gave the address of welcome in his usual finished style. Two piano numbers, "The Invitation to the Dance, by Weber, and the Chopin-Listz transcription of the "Maiden's Wish" were rendered by Miss Eva Dresel and revealed wonderful interpretation and unusual technique. "The Barcarolle" a trio, was sung by the three charming Fox sisters, who responded to an encore to this delightful number.

Mrs. Wm. Steinkamp proved a clever elocutionist, giving two comic recitations which were greatly enjoyed.

Swiss dancing by three couple, natives of the beautiful Alpine country, where they had often danced in years gone by, was given in the national costume, exactly as danced in the old country. The participants were Mrs. Ben Meyer and F. Dorrer, Mrs. Jack Meyer and F. Imlig and Mrs. Tony Marcucci and H. Gisler of Sacramento Music was furnished for these numbers by Ben Meyer, accordian and Mr Muller of Petaluma, clarinet. The Swiss dancing made a tremendous hit and the ladies and their partners graciously responded to several encores.

The finale of the program was the repartee between Frank Muller and Editor Henry Budde of a San Francisco paper, the California Journal, who was called to the platform and told of the Muller-Budde friendship, dating back to the good old Frisco days.

Following the program numbers, dancing and refrechments were the order of the evening, music being furnished by the Foxy Four and F. Nimpfer.

COL. SIMMONS ADDRESSES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Colonel Simmons of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce gave a fine talk before the Valley of the Moon Chamber of Commerce at the Sonoma Grammar School auditorium last Monday night. Due to other activities there was not a great many in attendance but all present profited greatly by the educative lesson in community building as outlined by the speaker. Mr. Simmons lauded Superior California and told how among the top counties of the entire United States, Northern California had the leading ones in point of wealth and production. In a film of the garden spots of the United States, 83 per cent of the film was taken in Central California.

The speaker declared that the true measure of a man was the service he rendered the community and that he might be poor or humble but personal service to his community made him rich in good citizenship. The triumph of various communities having good Chambers of Commerce was outlined.

President Tom Corcoran of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce presided with R. C. Specht, secretary, recording the proceedings.

GOODRICH ANNOUNCES NEW TIRE PRICES

The B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, announces new tire prices that bring the cost of Goodrich tires to the lowest cost mileage ever known. This revised price list affords motorists a definite guide to tire prices as Goodrich tires are the definite standard of tire quality.

Cheaper motor transportation by at least $50,000,000 this year is the concrete and visible effect of this announcement, reducing the price of automobile tires from 10 to 15 per cent The reduction takes effect immediately.

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

Jake Steckmeyer was a Saturday visitor in Petaluma.

Miss Bomhoff of Santa Rosa visited relatives here Monday.

Frank LaHaye of San Francisco was looking the valley over Sunday.

S. Nonella, in his wonderful one-hoss shay, drove over to Napa Monday.

Mrs. Al Rossi and daughter were visiting relatives in Kenwood Sunday.

Billy Kiser, Beau Brummel of the Schellville section, was a visitor here Sunday.

Mrs. May Notrica of Los Angeles has been visiting at the John Andrews home.

George Matson, a seafaring man, is spending his annual vacation at the El Verano Villa

Miss Hermie Wood of San Francisco has been visiting relatives in Sonoma Valley.

Ken Weaver, Sonoma's popular lumber dealer, was in quest of deer in Yolo county this week.

L. Lalonne and wife were here from San Francisco over the week end, the guests at the Dutil home.

Jack Horanger of Oakland, an experienced barber, is here for the summer season at Basileau's shaving parlors.

Gary Wright, S. P. train master, who is stationed at Suisun, passed through here Monday for Santa Rosa. Gary, since the strike, has donned overalls and helped in repairing disabled engines and otherwise making himself handy. He has lost 20 pounds in his labors and his familiar bay front has disappeared. He is one of the old time employees of the company and knowns nothing else but railroading.

Jack Main and wife returned from San Francisco last Saturday after a business and pleasure trip of several days.

J. K. Bigelow has shipped all his household goods to Mendocino county, where he will have a new home built on his large ranch.

The S. P. Company has put on an extra freight train over the Santa Rosa branch to handle the rush of fruit from the northern counties.

Ed Harris and family from the southern part of the state motored through the valley one day last week They were formerly residents here.

Born, Sunday, July 30, to Mr. and Mrs. M. Miracle of El Verano, a daughter. Mother and babe are doing nicely. Dr. Thomson was the attending physician.

A number of our hunters, including John Basileu, Jake Steckmeyer and John Dowdall, opened the season in quest of deer, in the western foothills. They will be gone for several days.

It is rumored that the voters, after the election of John Mohr to the constableship, will donate the new office holder a uniform, club and star. John is a stately young man and has the qualifications of a good cop.

Maurice O'Dowd, San Francisco detective, has just finished building an addition to his summer home here. R. E. Murphy, Sonoma's leading contractor, had charge of the work. Mr. O'Dowd's family is summering here.

A large crowd gathered at Boyes Springs Theatre last Friday evening to take in the entertainment given for the benefit of St. Francis church, Sonoma. The talent was good and Sonoma Valley's favorite, Eddie Healey, of San Francisco, made a hit when he pulled off a joke on our old friend, Deputy Constable Rosenthal, of Verano which brought the crowded house to their feet. Harry Prince was also a hit with his songs and jokes.

It is rumored that the S. P. Co. will shortly change its time schedule. The berry crop is about harvested and the morning and evening trains will go into effect again as they were running when the last change was made.

Joe Escolle, who has one of the finest fruit ranches in Sonoma county, shipped the first carload of fine Bartlett pears from Sonoma Valley last week to Santa Rosa. The pear crop is heavy and the fruit is the best yet seen in these parts.

Hoke Smith, candidate for assessor, who now holds the important office, was a guest of Sonoma Valley friends Sunday, taking in the Redmen's picnic at Oak Grove. His many friends are rallying to his support and Mr. Smith, at this writing looks like a winner.

Eddie Healey, an also ran for the supervisorship in San Francisco, several months ago, was through Sonoma Valley campaigning for Judge Shurtleff, a candidate for associate justice of the supreme court. Eddie was in a bad territory, as all voters of all denominations in this section are out for Judge Seawell, who will no doubt be elected by a large majority to the office of associate justice at the coming election. He has been a good judge and will sweep California.

One day last week two summer girls who are vacationing here, while riding on a raft floating in Sonoma creek, turned over in the deep water and both narrowly escaped being drowned. Arthur Baines, ex-service man and war hero and Milton Petersen, who happened to be watching the girls, jumped in and saved them, just as one of the girls was going down for the third time. Neither were any the worse for their experience and the boys are receiving congratulations for their heroic work.

The large buck that has roamed the western foothills for the past several years, defying all deer hunters and making many hunters, both young and old, take to the woods, has at last been killed. Gus Merz and John Dowdall, at a distance of 250 feet, brought to an end the reign of this monarch of the hills. Although wounded several times during the past three our four years, he has always heretofore managed to escape. Among those who asisted in running down this deer were John Basileau and Jake Steckmeyer. The writer thanks the hunters for the venison left at the office, which was delicious.

NANCY BATES OLIN ILL IN HONOLULU

Mrs. Nancy Bates Olin, who with her husband was to sail from Honolulu for home last week, was suddenly stricken with appendicitis and a cablegram to her parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bates of Sonoma, stated that she was in the Queen's Hospital and would have to be operated upon.

The Olins went to the Islands on a three months' trip, leaving their baby daughter with relatives here during their absence. Mrs. Olin is reported to have been very anxious to get back to little Zoe. Her unexpected operation has caused her parents and her friends great anxiety and will delay her return for some time.

Mrs. Kehoe and daughter, Eleanor have been visiting for some time past at the Millerick home in Schellville.

GEO. C. MASON FOR COUNTY ASSESSOR

Personality and capability are essentials in the test for a private or public position. There is an individuality about certain people that makes them likeable and cements a warm friendship. There is, too, in capability, that which takes initiative and knowledge and quick perception to do things and do them right. Without question, George C. Mason, candidate for assessor of Sonoma county, possesses these necessary attributes. Every one who knows Mr. Mason likes his personality, and everybody knows that he is capable.

George Mason was born in Sonoma county. He belongs to the county and to its people. He is true to his pioneer ancestry in the attributes of honesty and industry. In his home town of Healdsburg they know him best, and from there they send him out to the voters of the entire county with their stamp of approval. They vouch for his character, for his integrity, for his honesty and for his capability. For a term of years he was chief deputy in the County Assessor's office, and he knows the work in every detail. He knows property values in the county, having appraised land all over the county for several well known corporations, and he appreciates just and equable taxation. Taxpayers may feel safe intrusting to Mr. Mason a fair square deal.

He cannot see all of the voters personally, but wherever you are he asks your unbiased consideration, and above all, your friendship. If elected he will be true to the trust you give him. Whatever may be your vote, he asks above all your friendship for Sonoma county and its people are his friends above all else.—adv.

TORRENS TITLE LAW IS HELD INVALIDATED

That the Torrens land registration law has been practically nullified by a decision which has just been handed down by the state supreme court of California is the opinion of prominent title men of California. The decision was concurred in by Chief Justice Shaw and five other judges of the supreme court, the bulletin states.

Constitutionality of the Torrens act is placed in question, in the opinion of prominent title men and realtors of the state. Although the Torrens law has been on the statute books in California for some years it has not come into general use. Title insurance is widely used in property transactions in this state, and is becoming more and more popular.

The case arose in Los Angeles county and was brought by C. Follette against the Pacific Light and Power Corporation. Mr. Follette obtained a Torrens certificate when he purchased the property. The certificate did not show the right of way held by the power company. He paid the full value for the property and did not know that the power company claimed any interest in it.

The supreme court reversed the district court of appeals and held, after an exhaustive examination of the Torrens statute, that the Torrens certificate held by Follette was void and of no value as against the rights of the power company.

The court cast serious doubts upon the constitutionality of the law both as regards the state constitution and the constitution of the United States. In the closing paragraph of the decision the court says:

"The provisions of the land title act (Torrens Act) which purports to entitle the purchase of a registered title to the premises in the actual possession and occupancy of another to hold the same superior to the prior rights and interests of such possessor are obnoxious to the provisions of the Federal Constitution which provides that persons shall not be deprived of their property without due process of law."

This decision of the supreme court will have far reaching effects, it is believed. It is the first case of its kind decided by a court of last resort in the United States.

Miss Alice Lawrence, who spent a two week's vacation here with her sister, Mrs. S. A. Robinson, returned to her home in Berkeley last Sunday afternoon.

Sunday, Aug. 20

Northern California Review and California Development Day; chicken barbecue. This will be the first big demonstration of Northern California cities and counties in a passing review of what their particular section is noted for, told by floats or walking features. The first prize for the feature that best illustrates what a community is known for, will be $500. Every community in Northern California is expected to get in line for this educational and spectacular feature. No city is prevented from entering. The winner will not necessarily be a gorgeous or extravagant presentation. It will be that community, city or county that best illustrates in the simplest manner what their particular community represents.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Partridge were up from San Francisco visiting at their country home in El Verano over the last week end. Their visit was marred by a painful accident to their pet horse, a thoroughbred, which tripped on some wire in the pasture and fell on a sharp rock which penetrated its shoulder, cutting a frightful gash which required many stitches to close. Dr. Nufer, the veterinarian, rendered first aid.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Schweitzer, who have been here several weeks summering at their country home, Haunted House Farm, have gone to San Mateo county for the rest of the season. Mrs. Schweitzer loves her Sonoma Valley ranch and is highly regarded by many friends and neighbors in the Valley of the Moon.

Roy Aubrey has been spending his vacation with his mother, Mrs. Tom Monahan.

Mrs. R. E. Murphy and daughter, Miss Frances and little son, Leonard, have been visiting relatives in Cupertino and Berkeley.

HISTORIC SONOMA, THE CONVENTION CITY

Sonoma has demonstrated its special advantages for convention holding. Where sister cities congratulate themselves on success of affairs such as Sonoma has just had in the gathering of the Redmen, and content themselves with the civic satisfaction of being cities that "know how," we have the proud satisfaction of knowing and should tell the world of the special advantages of historic fame which adds to Sonoma's charm and prestige as a hostess city. It was this phase that made so great an impression on our recent guests and was the high light of the big gathering. The old Vallejo home charmed everyone and the visitors were united in declaring it ideal for such gatherings and of such importance in the life and history of Sonoma that it should be preserved to the people for all time through purchase by some organization or the state.

As to Sonoma's talent as a convention city, it was amply demonstrated that the spirit of the people who call Sonoma home is one of natural cordiality, for we have the true heritage of hospitality and when the call was sounded to make preparations for the delegates coming to Sonoma's convention, our citizens were quick to respond and co-operate with the local committeemen, whose lasting gratitude they have merited.

The Index-Tribune is glad to have fostered this most successful event in our civic history. We have long wished that our city might open wide its gates to visitors and that we might make them directly acquainted with the real Sonoma Valley, its beauties and its social graces. It is only by mingling with those who live here and coming to know Sonoma at close range that strangers will realize the romance and opportunity which are all about us. This realization and the desire to promote Sonoma's future along these lines prompted the Index-Tribune to give whole-hearted support to the U. O. R. M. convention plans from the outset. It will be indirectly, rather than directly, that Sonoma will benefit from the success which has come out of this conclave, although the coming of so many visitors to remain several days in our community could not help but quicken the commercial channel and make for the general betterment of business. Conventions are good for any community and this convention was successful and delightful in every particular. The delegates came, saw and were conquered by the natural beauties of the Valley of the Moon and by the genial hosts and hostesses who made their stay here a triumph in hospitality. The visit of the Redmen and their ladies will long be remembered for they were enthusiastic and appreciative guests and their appreciation was of the finer sort as is evidenced by such graceful and beautiful acts as the tribute at the tomb of General Vallejo, the founder of our city. Sonoma cannot soon forget this acknowledgement nor the coming among us of the whole-hearted, enthusiastic delegation of men and women whom it has been our pleasure to entertain the past week.

VAST MAJORITY AGAINST THE PROHIBITION AMENDMENT

The Literary Digest poll on the subject of the Eighteenth Amendment continues. It still remains overwhelmingly against the Amendment.

The latest figures are:

In favor of the strict enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Law, 135,834; in favor of light wines and beers, 145,727; in favor of repealing the Prohibition Amendment, 76,039.

This makes 221,766 ballots against the Eighteenth Amendment, out of a total of 357,600 so far registered.

The Digest is much fairer in its current issue than it has been in the two preceding ones. It gives space this time to the opponents of prohibition.

Among other things it publishes a letter from Col. Walter J. Carlin, general counsel for the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, in which he states that, if the poll were confined to the laboring classes alone, the sentiment would be found to be almost unanimous in favor of light wines and beers.

This is proved by the statement of the Digest itself which gives a poll of the Edison Works in New Jersey, as follows:

For enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment, 93; for light wines and beers, 978; for absolute repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, 966.

As the Digest says: "The result shows a proportion of more than twenty to one against the continuation and enforcement of the present liquor laws.

And it also shows a proportion of over ten to one against prohibition of any character.—Sacramento Bee

GLEN ELLEN CLUB SCORES BIG SUCCESS

The talented colony of Glen Ellen and Kenwood under the direction of Mrs. Lenora Campbell of Healdsburg scored a brilliant success in the presentation of the Old Times Koncerte put on at the State Home auditorium Tuesday and Wednesday evenings for the benefit of the Jack London memorial library.

The costuming itself provoked the greatest applause and laughter and all the characters were well sustained. Among the participants were Mrs. Eliza Shepard, wearing a gorgeous millinery creation decked with feathers and plumes from the barnyards and ostrich farms of two continents; Meryl Bish, eccentric comedian whose songs with Miss Louise Craib took the house by storm; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Hanniford, Mrs. Irving Shepard, Mrs. Shirley Weise, whose "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" was among the best solo numbers; Mr. Steves; Uncle Ham in the Dust Man's Wife; Tommy Burns in tableaux; Marian Ely, Mrs. Edrington, whose bonnet, bustle and pantalettes hearkened back to the fashions of long ago; Mrs. F. Clark, Mrs. Weaver, H. Schieck, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cowan, Mrs. Bancroft, Gloria Moore, Mrs. Clarence Erickson, Miss Henningsen, Mrs. Kerr, Yolanda Siddley as Topsy, Mr. Thompson, Mrs. Jones, Mr. Wilson, Clarence Erickson, Mrs. Campbell, Wm. Ives and others.

The old quadrille number with Bill Ives as caller created a genuine furore. The quilting bee with the gossip and jokes of local celebrities was also a big laugh provoker. Mrs. Campbell's singing was most artistic and her numbers well chosen. The minuet and tableaux were beautifully carried out. Mr. and Mrs. Moore contributed orchestral numbers and the entertainment from start to finish was a delight to all who attended.

A substantial sum for the Jack London fund was realized.

Mrs. Wm. Helberg, Jr., and little son are visiting relatives down south.

Mrs. Fred Hansen entertained the White Shell Club very pleasantly on Friday of last week.

SONOMA TO EXHIBIT AT COMING FAIRS

Will Enter Float at Petaluma and Also Display Product at Both the Egg City and Petaluma.

At an enthusiastic booster dinner held at the Plaza Hotel Friday night of last week it was decided to have Sonoma represented at the state and county fairs. The Sonoma Business Men's Association and a delegation from Petaluma and Santa Rosa, headed by H. W. Kerrigan and H. Waters of the County Board of Trade, discussed the plans which are now well launched. A float, produce exhibit and other features will be sent from this valley to carry the message of our attractions.

At the banquet there were enthusiastic talks by Messrs. Kerrigan, Drees Waters, Duhring, LaTorres, Clewe, Wm. Helberg, Jr., and others.

The Sonoma Business Men's Association had a special meeting Tuesday night and were assured co-operation on the fruit exhibit from George Cassidy, president of the Apple Growers' Association and others. An exhibit committee was named and consists of R. B. Hunter, R.Bancroft, E.T.Casson, W. L. Murphy and Jas. Gottenberg.

A committee on the float plans was appointed as follows: Messrs. H. H. Hunt, P. Robin and Chas. LaTorres. It is planned to construct a float which can be entered any time there is a call for the Valley of the Moon to participate in big affairs.

VINEBURG NEWS

Quite a novel trip was made to the summit of the Sierras, one which combined business with pleasure, and some speed also. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groskopf Jr., Miss Adele Andrieux, Emily Batto and Ernest Figone. Leaving Vineburg at 9:30 last Saturday evening, they motored to the Summit, arriving at the hotel Sunday morning at 7:00 a. m., they started for home at 1:00 p. m. Sunday and arrived at Vineburg Monday at 2:30 a.m., being absent 30 hours; 20 hours running time. Distance traveled, 400 miles; average speed 20 miles an hour. Some traveling for mountain roads. Five expert auto drivers were in the party and there was no time that anyone was asleep at the wheel. All returned safe and were delighted with their trip. Herbert John Batto was the mascot. Miss Emily Batto remained at the summit where she will enjoy a well deserved vacation among the picturesque mountains and beautiful lakes of that vicinity.

to arrest no one without a warrant, reciting how the late Sheriff Petray had to pay $2000 damages to a man jailed under such circumstances. The sheriff declares that it is up to the prohibition officers to fully comply with the law and points out that judges have repeatedly reprimanded dry agents for wrongful acts in connection with the handling of prisoners, the serving of warrants and the search and seizure provisions of the prohibition law. Sheriff Boyes is being commended for his stand and is conceded to be fully justified in his position, even by the high priest Sam Rutter, directing prohibition chief.

ideal and everyone in good spirits, the delegates gathered on the grounds of the historic Vallejo home where the convention formally opened. The charming out-of-door surroundings promptly captivated the visitors, but the climax of their appreciation came when they were introduced to Mrs. Luly Vallejo Emparan, daughter of the late General M. G. Vallejo, who welcomed them cordially and bade them enjoy the hospitality of the old home during their stay in Sonoma. F. Muller voiced the extreme pleasure felt by his townsmen, brothers and sisters of the Sonoma Stamm and Daughters of Pocahontas in having so gracious a representative of true Sonoma hospitality as Mrs. Emparan, who had so generously offered the grounds of Lachryma Montis for the meetings of the Order.

Business was then inaguratec and important matters were up for discussion, following which an inspection of the Vallejo home, relics and heirlooms was the pleasure of the visitors. After lunch served under the trees by the Bear Flag Lodge of Pocahontas, there was more business transacted, and Mrs. Emparan favored the company with some Spanish songs which completely won the hearts of her hearers.

Monday night the city was illuminated, the large bell, with its myriads of lights, winning the admiration of hundreds of spectators who came out in true carnival style to join in the Redmen's celebration. The open air concert and vocal numbers of Madame Maerilla were of a high order, the rendition of the Sextette from Lucia being particularly fine. At 9:00 p. m. dancing at Union Hall was inagurated and drew an immense crowd.

Tuesday was given over to the transaction of important business by the convention at the Vallejo grounds. The election of Grand officers for 1922 1923 and the formulating and passing of resolutions vital to the welfare of Americans and Germans in the United States. Among the resolutions was one relative to the return of property seized during the war, withdrawal of colored troops from the Rhine, held to be an insult to the German people and a menace to white womanhood; revision of text books, believed to be influenced by propagandists, preservation of rights and liberties menaced by such laws as the Volstead law, and a strong resolution urging a vote of the people of the United States on participation in any war except in the case of actual invasion by the enemy.

Grand officers for 1922-23 elected were as follows; Grand Chief, Ben Kaiser; Grand Under Chief, Geo. Witte; Grand Vice Chief, Wm. Steinkamp; Grand Chaplain, Gus Schalk; Grand Secretary, Martin Fuetscher; Grand Treasurer, Henry Grieb; Grand Marshal, F. Eisert; Grand Herold, M. Vogel; Grand Warrior, Geo. Meyer; Grand Inside Guard, H. Dickmann; Grand Second Inside Guard, K. Oberle Grand Outside Guard, Max Moeller; Grand Trustees, John V. Oppel, Jacob Kiefer, Henry Schulz.

A voter of thanks was given by the grand Lodge to Sonoma Stamm and Bear Flag Lodge for the splendid entertainment and hospitality accorded the delegates.

A beautiful and impressive tribute from the Redmen to the memory of General Vallejo and his descendants was the placing of a permanent wreath on his tomb in Mountain Cemetery. The ceremony of the pilgramage to the grave of the distinguished Californian and the placing of the wreath, was an event of Tuesday. Grand Treasurer Henry Grieb of San Francisco made simple but beautiful remarks, eulogizing the late General and his many good works. Mrs. Emparan acknowledged the tribute, expressing her deep appreciation to the Order. Prominent Redmen expressed great interest in the plan to preserve the old Vallejo home to posterity as a state memorial. One of the grand officers said "there are many ways in which our state can show its gratitude and loyalty to General Vallejo and his family, among them should be the acquisition of the historic home and the many valuable relics of his time." It was suggested that Senora Lulu Emparan should be one of the guests of honor at the coming Portola celebration in San Francisco.

In reviewing the convention's success, the California Journal of San Francisco said for the delegates, 'The members of the Redmen cannot pass this opportunity to give expression to its heart-felt thanks for the courtesy and kindness extended to them while in Sonoma by the daughter of General Vallejo and all the good people of Sonoma Valley. We certainly appreciate the whole hearted welcome that greeted us on all sides."

R. Langer of Sonoma Stamm said in behalf of the local Lodges, "we will never forget the kind courteses and favors shown by Mrs. Emparan and above all her songs which expressed more than mere words her beautiful spirit."

Tuesday night Union Hall was the scene of a sumptious banquet, places being set for 400. Asparagus fern, marigolds and dahlias decorated the tables. J. Tullius was the toastmaster and his genial personality and clev erness contributed much to the banquet's success. Music and entertainment by Madame Maerilla and her orchestra, speeches by grand officers and delegates, singing of national anthems, including the Star Spangled Banner, and an address by Editor Budde on current topics of international import made Tuesday night's affair the most brilliant event of the convention. Dancing and refreshments rounded out the evening's pleasure.

Wednesday saw the close of the big meeting in Sonoma, the convention adjourning to meet next year in San Francisco.

Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the arrangements committee and all committees whose untiring efforts made the convention in Sonoma Valley among the finest ever held in the State of California. The Index-Tribune takes this opportunity to congratulate the Redmen and Daughters of Pocahontas for demonstrating Sonoma Valley's adaptability for gatherings such as the Redmen recently held here and for their whole-hearted entertainment of visitors which cannot help but reflect credit on our community and bring new honors to the Valley of the Moon.

C. J. POPPE N. S. G. W. SECRETARY 36 YEARS

Charles J. Poppe, secretary of the Glen Ellen parlor of Native Sons, began his 36th year as secretary of the parlor with the installation of the officers held in Glen Ellen Monday evening. Poppe began his first term of office in 1887 and has been re-elected each year since.

A. Fraser was installed into the office of president, while Charles Pagani was installed as vice president.

A delegation from Santa Rosa parlar attended the meeting with Marvin T. Vaughan, district deputy grand president acting as installing officer. The Glen Ellen parlor accepted the invitation of Santa Rosa parlor to attend the picnic on the river at Mirabel Park on September 9. The members of the Glen Ellen parlor, who will not be able to attend the San Jose celebration will visit the picnic ground on that date.

GRAPES WILL LEAD 1922 STATE FRUIT SHIPMENTS

Here is in part the monthly summary of the fruit outlook in California as compiled by the Federal Reserve Board on July 27, 1922. It will be noted that the forecasted shipment of grapes this year is 40,000 cars as compared with 25,524 cars last year.

Sonoma county has a banner crop of wine grapes this year, the crop in Sonoma Valley alone running into thousands of dollars. Grapes in Napa county cover 15,000 acres with a 1922 yield of 40,000 tons, which means a golden harvest of $3,000,000 for the wine producing area of that locality.

Carlot shipments of peaches and grapes from California are expected to be unusually large this season, unless the movement of fruit is hampered by a shortage of refrigerator cars or curtailment of train service on account of strike. Grape growers estimate that they will require over 40,000 cars to move their crop of wine and table grapes. The following commercial estimates show the probable movement of deciduous fruits from California during the 1922 season, as compared with previous seasons:

Carlot movements of California fruits north of Tehachapi Pass—

	Forecasted 1922 Shipments Cars	Estimated Shipments 1921 Cars	1920 Cars
Apricots	187	285	312
Cherries	495	665	494
All Grapes	40,000	28,529	24,280
Peaches	3,900	3,334	3,148
Pears	4,500	4,160	4,391
Plums	3,100	3,090	2,564
Totals	52,172	40,072	35,189

A favorable market for fresh fruit is reported, although prices, on the whole, are expected to be slightly lower than during the 1921 season. Fruit crops in Eastern and Middle Western states, which compete with fruits from California and the Pacific Northwest in the large distributing centers of the country, promise normal yields this season, in contrast with the curtailed yield in those sections during the 1921 season as a result of the spring frosts of that year. Deciduous fruit shippers believe, however, that the increased demand incident to quickening business activity and increased employment will offset this factor. Prices received for California cherries and apricots recently marketed were approximately the same as during the 1921 season. Prices on 1922 crop wine grapes have been announced by the California Grape Growers Exchange. Zinfandel grapes, representing the bulk of the crop are quoted at $72.50 per ton, and Alicante Bouschet, the choicest variety of wine grapes, at $105.00 per ton. In 1921 the Exchange quoted these grapes at $70 and $90 per ton, respectively. White grapes are quoted at prices approximately $10 per ton below 1921 price levels, and it is reported that a large amount of certain varieties of grapes ordinarily used for raisins will be shipped this season for table and other uses.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church will be entertained on Tuesday night at the W. B. Hays home, Mrs. A. Bates assisting her daughter, Mrs. Hays, during the social afternoon.

JACK LONDON DAY AT COUNTIES FAIR

The memory of the late Jack London, whose immortal Valley of the Moon, made Sonoma county famous the world over, will be fittingly commemorated during the Sonoma-Marin counties fair.

Thursday, August 17, the second day of the big exposition, is to be dedicated to the memory of London and it is the intention of the fair directors to gather as many friends and associates of the departed author as they can and entertain them at a big outdoor luncheon.

Mrs. Charmian London, widow of the departed writer, will be the special guest of honor. Writing from her Glen Ellen home, in the heart of the Valley of the Moon, Mrs. London has expressed her appreciation of the honor extended her and her thanks to the people of Sonoma county in perpetuating the memory of her departed husband.

"As a rule I shun publicity," writes Mrs. London to Secretary Kerrigan, of the Chamber of Commerce. 'But your purpose is so kindly, in having a Jack London luncheon, and thus doing honor to my husband's memory that I am very glad to accept the honor of your invitation to be present."
—Petaluma Courier.

WM. KENT SAID SOMETHING

Emphasizing the importance of the Supreme Court in our governmental system, William Kent, former Congressman, has endorsed Judge Emmet Seawell, candidate for one of the two long terms as associate justice of the state Supreme Court. In a letter to Judge Seawell's campaign committee, Kent says:

"I have carefully followed the career of Judge Seawell and have noted both his public service and his attitude as a citizen. He has been brave, humane and industrious. He has laid hold of the great legal principle that the purport [illegible] ablish justice between men, and to encourage relations that will result in mutual understandings, and therefore higher co-operative endeavor. He is greatly endowed with vision, common sense and public spirit.

"It may be said of Judge Seawell that his decisions always tend toward the public welfare and that he is sufficiently versed in the law to find unimpeachable authority for his attitude.

"His are the sort of judicial interpretations that appeal to every man who is not a reactionary or a narrow legalist. We especially need on the bench men with a realizing sense and sympathy with the law's essential purpose.

"A Supreme Court Justice, under our system of divided governmental functions, is actually an important factor in law making. Should his bias be reactionary or narrowly legalistic, the people suffer. Should his grasp of principles be broad, the people gain."

"I wish to give my fullest commendation to Judge Seawell and endorsement to his candidacy."

CARD OF THANKS

The Press Committee of the Redmen wishes to express its thanks and appreciation to the city officials, the Business Men's Association of Sonoma, The Index-Tribune, the California Telephone and Light Company and all others whose splendid help and co-operation made the convention such a success. Special mention should be made of W. F. Clewe, president of the Business Men's Association, who met the delegates and offered his car for sight seeing and the entertainment of visitors. Signed,

PRESS COMMITTEE.

Mrs. D. Hatton has gone to Carlotta, Humboldt county, where her son-in-law, is building concrete bridges and where Mr. Hatton is employed. The family have established a camp in the redwoods and will be away for two or three months. Mr. and Mrs. Siegel of the Standard Oil Service Station have rented the Hatton cottage during the absence of its owner.

Judge Justi of Glen Ellen suffered symptoms of ptomaine poisoning the fore part of the week and had to call in Dr. Thomson before getting relief.

SONOMA AND NAPA SUFFER FROM DELAY ON HIGHWAY

Rudy Lichtenberg and William R. King, prominent members of the Sonoma Chamber of Commerce, accompanied by H. H. Jones, an engineer, were in Napa Friay afternoon consulting with Napa Chamber of Commerce officials concerning the Black Point cut-off.

It seems that the construction of the paved highway from Ignacio to Fairville, a distance of 10 miles, and the grading of the balance of the highway to the Napa county line has been delayed in such a manner as to arouse utmost indignation in Sonoma county.

The contract for this improvement was let in September of 1921, with the promise from the State Highway Commission of its immediate completion, but so far only a few miles of grading has been done, and only a little more than a mile of the paving.

Another winter will pass before the comparatively small job is completed.

Some one has been dilatory to a most vexatious degree and the Napa and Sonoma people are beginning to lose all faith in the State Highway Commission.

It is very likely that the Napa Chamber of Commerce will join with the Sonomans in starting an agitation that might bring about good results.

The Black Point cut-off should have been completed easily this summer in accordance with the promise made.

The continued tie up of that highway works a great hardship upon Sonoma and Napa counties, a hardship that has been endured for years, but which should not be further tolerated.

TAKE A PEEK AT BORDSON'S ENTERPRISE

Ben Bordson, former Sonoma business man, accompanied by Jack Fellows of Oakland, were here Monday in the interest of the Peep-In Candy Company. The concern has the patent rights to a candy cabinet which they install in various stores throughout California territory, the candy service being placed on a royalty basis. The cabinets are of mahogany and an order for the manufacture of 500 of them was left here at the Adler Mill by Mr. Bordson during his stay in Sonoma. "Peep-In" chocolates have been jumping rapidly into the favor of lovers of nicely kept candy.

EUVELLE HOWARD FOR CONGRESS

Wherever Euvelle Howard goes in the First Congressional District he is received with favor as a man and acclaimed as a strong factor as a Congressional aspirant. He is well known in every section of the district as an earnest advocate of and tireless worker for whatsoever will be of material benefit to the State of California, locally and generally.

As a Republican, Howard is and has been consistent, and in asking the nomination to congress he is only asking that which is right as a citizen and a party man. So far as we have learned Howard at no time sought to secure favor or support at the expense of the character or standing of any opponent or individual, but is making his campaign for the primary election upon the broad lines of American citizenship, of what he believes is for the best interests of the people of this district and the state, and the integrity of the Republican party.

In a recent issue of the Sausalito News, following a visit to Marin county, a splendid tribute was paid Mr. Howard as a man and candidate.

Euvelle Howard, a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from this district, was a visitor in Sausalito this week, says his campaign is in excellent shape and that he will secure the Republican nomination at the primaries and be elected at the general election by a handsome plurality.

The candidacy of Mr. Howard for the Republican nomination for Congress from this district was endorsed at a meeting recently held in Santa Rosa composed of Republican county committee chairmen and prominent Republican leaders.

Mr. Howard, single handed, made a strong fight for and received the highest vote of the Republican candidates. Congressman Lea, a Democrat, secured the Republican nomination at the primaries and had no opposition at the general election in 1920. This year the Republicans of the district are back of Howard and will nominate and elect Howard, a Republican, from this strong Republican district.

Euvelle Howard was born in Tennessee and came to California and settled in Lake county in his early youth. During his residence in Lakeport, which has been his home since he first came to California, he has been identified with the largest and most important financial and business enterprises in Lake county. He received his education by attending night school, after which he taught school for 11 years and at one time was principal of the Lakeport grammar school.

He was married in 1892 to Maude Downen, one of Lake county's most accomplished teachers. Eight children were born of this union, four sons and four daughters, two of which graduating from the university at the beginning of the war, entered the service.

Mr. Howard is a man of integrity with genuine interest in public welfare, and has been actively allied in advancing the progressive interests of his home community and state. An evidence of the high esteem in which he is held by his community was his election to the office of county recorder of Lake county by the largest majority ever accorded an officer of the county. Later he resigned from the office and entered the field of agriculture.

When Howard was endorsed by the Lake County Farmers' and Stockmens Association in 1920 for nomination as Republican candidate for Congress, they adopted resolutions which read in part:

"That we, as farmers and stockmen having known Mr. Howard for many years, do endorse him for Congressman and vouchsafe his integrity and ability."

FIVE YEARS FROM DATE OF DISCHARGE

Section 309 of the War Risk Insurance Act is quoted for the information of all ex-service men who may have been disabled while in active service and who have not applied for compensation to the U. S. Veterans' Bureau

"That no compensation shall be payable unless a claimtherefor be filed, in case of disability, within five years after discharge or resignation from the service, or, in case of death during the service, within five years after such death is officially recorded in the department under which he may be serving: Provided, however, that where compensation is payable for death or disability occurring after discharge or resignation from the service, claim must be made within five years after such death or the beginning of such disability".

This Section of the Act has been enforced but little up to the present time, the reason being that the five years mentioned thein has not run for many of the discharged service men who desire to claim their rights under this Act rather than the Pension law. Those who were discharged between 1917, April 6, 1917 and October 6, 1917 havean optional right, that is, theycan either apply to the Pension Bureau or to the Veterans' Bureau if they apply within the statutory period, namely, within five years. Persons discharged after October 6, 1917, will have no right whatever unless they make claim five years from date of their discharge An example of that is "a man discharged from Navy on S. C. D. December 1, 1917, files claim within the Veterans' Bureau at one of the District offices, on December 15, 1922. His claim must necessarily be disallowed because he has not applied for compensation within the five year period unless he has a certificate of injury which he must get before August 9, 1922." This is vitally important information to discharged ex-service men and should be given as much publicity as possible in order that rights may not be lost because of this feature of the act.

The above outline relates also to application for compensation because of service connected deaths. Parents who are not receiving compensation must show dependency within five years after death of the person on account of whose service claim is made. This provision of the Act is found in Section 309, sub-division "G" which is quoted as follows;

Such compensation shall be payable whether the dependency of the father or mother or both arises before or after the death of the person, but no compensation shall be payable if the dependency arises more than five year after the death of the person."

Attention is also invited to Section 315 of the Act, which is quoted as follows:

"What no person admitted into the military or naval forces of the United States after six months from the passage of this amendatory act shall be entitled to the compensation or any other benefits or privileges provided under the provision of Article 111 of the War Risk Insurance Act. as amended."

This section, as it states only covers those who are enlisted after February 9, 1922, Should a claim be filed by a discharged man who was enlisted after February 9, 1922, regardless of the date of discharge at the present time he is without protection. Several acts are pending in Congress to cover such class of claimants but as the statutes now stand there is no act to protect them; neither the Veterans' Bureau nor the Pension Office has any jurisdiction over them.

Ralph Murphy, the contractor, accompanied by his two eldest sons, are in Mendocino county camping on the Bigelow cattle ranch with J. K. Bigelow and sons. They have a man cook and are batching it in royal fashion. Bigelow is preparing to build a handsome bungalow on the 5,000 acre ranch which heretofore has had few improvements.

CHARLES SCHMITT, THE PATRIARCH OF THE TRIBE

Among the delegates to the convention which has been in session here was Charles Schmitt, of Sacramento, the oldest member of the Order in California. Mr. Schmitt, retired editor of a German American newspaper in Sacramento, will soon be 86 years of age, and is a grand old man. Possessed of unimpaired mental faculties, with a memory clear and bright and a personality which has made him beloved by a large coterie of friends during his 66 years residence in California, Sonoma was proud to welcome him among the guests of the past week.

Mr. Schmitt learned his trade as a printer in Philadelphia in 1854, coming west soon after to work in the mines of California, and later to follow his trade and enter the publishing business. He has interesting remeniscences of the Sacramento of pioneer days, and of Sutter's Fort which he recalls before it was reclaimed and beautified by the Native Sons. Mr. Schmitt was much interested in the plan of making the old Vallejo home a memorial park and suggested that the Native Sons of California or the Parlors of the Order in Sonoma county finance its purchase.

In commenting on the Redmen's sessions in Sonoma, Mr. Schmitt said: "I have attended a great many conventions of our lodges in California since a charter member of the Sacramento Stamm, organized in 1868, and must say that the meeting here in Sonoma has been one of the finest, most original and interesting in every particular."

Mr. Schmitt left for San Francisco Wednesday, where he will visit his son, who has a large paper box manufacturing and printing plant in that city.

MANY DEER SEEN IN THIS VICINITY

The deer season opening day, Tuesday, proved that venison is plentiful in this vicinity, although many local sportsmen went farther north in quest of big game. Messrs Merz and Dowdall killed a 150 pound buck on the Merz ranch above El Verano after being out just a few hours. They fired nine shots.

A summer visitor hired a saddle horse from Joe Ryan's stable at Boyes Tuesday and left for the hills with his rifle at 4 a. m. About 9 o'clock in the morning he returned with the good news that he had got his deer. Blood on the horse's withers verified the statement.

THEATRE CROWDED TO DOOR FOR ST. FRANCIS BENEFIT

Father J. F. Byrne more than made good his promise when he announced that the entertainment put on Friday evening July 28, at Boyes Springs for the benefit of St. Francis Church, would consist of high class vaudeville acts. By 8:30 the house was packed and those who came after that time were lucky to find a place large enough to stand. The show started off with the usual professional snap. Fun for all. Singing, dancing and comedy.

First number on the program was Prof. Cesana who rendered piano selections of his own composition which showed him off to great advantage as a young composer. He was well received.

The second number was put on by the McKenzie Sisters, two pretty young ladies, well coseumed and possessing sweet voices, singing "Some Sunny Day" and Cesana's latest success, "In the Valley of the Moon."

Baby Melba was next, well named, as she appeared as a Spanish Signorita, singing her way into the hearts of the audience with 'La Paloma', with all the eclat and fasionation of a real prima donna.

Next was Harry Prince, the Valley of the Moon favorite. Everybody knows Harry Prince, his ovation was flattering, which his songs fully justified.

Harry Dale, in 'Minstrel Art in White', just vacationing at Boyes, after a successful tour of the United States, did some soft shoe dances as only a professional master of the art could execute them. When he left the stage and reappeared for his encore, the audience wasn't quite sure whether it was he or his double who had reappeared. The Dale Brothers did an act all their own, keeping the audience laughing continuously. The song and dance imitation of Jim Post, retired comedian, now of Boyes Springs, was immense. Mr. and Mrs. Post were present and it sure brought them back some. This act was a courtesy of the Sylvano Studio, San Francisco..

Ed Healy, the monologist, an old timer proved that he knew his business as a laugh provoker.

Royland and Lorraine Buckley, a very clever team, jumped into Boyes Springs from Sacramento where they had been playing a circuit engagement were seen in songs and dances.

Next came 'Rajah', comedy mind reading act. It was worked in the usual manner among the audience and went over with many laughs.

The final act was put on by George Sylvano and Hazel Delphine. This vaudeville headline act displayed some intricate movements in original Argentine tango. The dance was interspersed with the Braziliana, as some of the figures were studied from the Apache of Montevideo. The agile dancers kept the audience spellbound. Sylvano rolled the castanets in true rhythm of the Republic while Miss Delphine twisted, revolved and showed superb suppleness, displaying colorful costumes beneath her black fringed shawl with its flame colored facing. Sylvano and Delphine were heavily encored in another number, a Cavalier Waltz Classique, Sylvano lifting his partner into the air as though she were a doll, while the audience applauded as though they were Tate and Marquardt enthusiasts..

BAD CHECK MAN ARRESTED

N. C. Galloway, recently released convict, who posed in Sonoma as a wealthy tourist, during the month of July and victimized John Pluth, who cashed checks for him aggregating $110 has been arrested by the Los Angeles police. Pluth, always accommodating, obliged the suave stranger who came to dine at his grill and passed two checks which were cashed on two separate occassions. The culprit, being an ex-convict, was quickly taken into custody in Southern California.

E. C. Coates, the well known garage man and Ford agent, received the sad news from England this week that his father, Henry Coates, had passed away. Deceased was 78 years of age and leaves two sons and a daughter to mourn him.

Two kinds of friction

It has been proved that as much as 20% of the power delivered to the driving wheels may be lost through friction, due to the use of an incorrect oil.

This friction may be of two kinds—the friction of metal on metal, due to the failure of the oil to preserve a lubricating film between the bearing surfaces, or the friction of oil on oil—the internal, molecular friction of the lubricant.

Too heavy an oil, or an oil lacking in "oiliness"—the quality that makes it cling to the bearings while at the same time offering a minimum of internal or fluid friction—constitutes a direct drain on the available horsepower of your motor.

The right body at all operating temperatures

Made from carefully selected crudes and scientifically refined by our patented high-vacuum process, Zerolene has great "oiliness." It clings to bearing surfaces, while offering in itself a minimum of frictional resistance to the engine power.

Zerolene maintains the right lubricating body under all conditions. As the engine gets hot, bearing clearances decrease. Analysis of Zerolene shows that the variations in its body, at the various engine temperatures, follow in close relation the decrease in bearing clearances.

Because of their "oiliness," stability and purity, Zerolene oils give perfect lubrication and help to develop the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of the car.
